

Get involved in Amateur Radio

Here are some suggestions on where to get started in Amateur Radio

- Join the Australian Ladies Amateur Radio Association (ALARA)
- Visit a radio club and find out about their foundation radio classes
- Purchase the "Your Entry Into Amateur Radio" book from the WIA
<https://www.wia.org.au/licenses/foundation/foundationmanual>
- Start listening on a WebSDR receiver
- Try an online course
- Test your knowledge with the WIA practice questions
<https://www.wia.org.au/licenses/foundation/onlineexams/foundation.php>

Free Foundation Amateur Radio Courses can be found online at:

https://www.youtube.com/playlist?list=PLsnsP_zjw831mdC6sY4XqavRUY-53ZWUn

<https://www.res.net.au/#> (click on Foundation Lic on side panel)

https://www.powershow.com/view1/1aeb68-ZDc1Z/Australian_Amateur_Operator_powerpoint_ppt_presentation

<https://slideplayer.com/slide/2417503>

<https://www.julesworkshop.net/Amateur%20Radio.html>

Remote exams can be organised with the Volunteer Examiners of Australia

<https://vea.org.au>

Listen to the song

Join Us in the Airwaves by The Ham Band

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=CDMTmDMXbJI>

